“This pioneering Berkshire Encyclopedia of World History is designed to help both beginners and experts to sample the best contemporary efforts to make sense of the human past by connecting particular and local histories with larger patterns of world history.”

—From the Preface by William H. McNeill, author of The Rise of the West and The Human Web.

Berkshire Encyclopedia of World History (5 volumes, 2,500 pages)
Edited by William H. McNeill, Jerry Bentley, David Christian et al.
ISBN 0-9743091-0-9
Price: $575; Prepublication: $525 (until Dec. 31)
www.berkshireworldhistory.com

Key Features

- Five volumes, 2,500 pages
- 550 signed articles by 330 scholars
- Overviews of Core Topics
- 550 primary text sidebars
- 500 illustrations and photos
- 60 original maps; 30 historical maps
- Preface and articles by William H. McNeill
- Topical Outline and Comprehensive Index

Hundreds of unique photos from around the world bring history to life.
The Berkshire Encyclopedia of World History is the first truly encyclopedic reference on world history. It is designed to meet the needs of students, teachers, and scholars who seek to explore—and understand—the panorama of our shared history as humans. Anyone who loves history—including those who are making history today—will find this work an endless source of fascinating, thought-provoking coverage of events, people, patterns, and processes.
About the Editors

William H. McNeill (Robert A. Millikan Distinguished Service Professor Emeritus of History at the University of Chicago) is a renowned world historian. He was awarded the prestigious Erasmus Prize for his contributions to European culture. His many books include The Rise of The West: A History of the Human Community (National Book Award); Plagues and People; Keeping Together in Time: Dance and Drill in Human History; The Pursuit of Power; and, with J. R. McNeill, The Human Web: A Bird’s-Eye View of Human History.

Jerry H. Bentley (Professor of History, University of Hawaii) is editor of the Journal of World History and author of Old World Encounters: Cross-Cultural Contacts and Exchanges in Pre-Modern Times and Traditions and Encounters: A Global Perspective on the Past with Herbert F. Ziegler.

David Christian (Professor of History, San Diego State University) is author of Maps of Time: An Introduction to Big History and A History of Russia, Central Asia and Mongolia: Volume 1: Inner Eurasia from Prehistory to the Mongol Empire.

David Levinson (Berkshire Publishing Group) is a cultural anthropologist and is editor of the Encyclopedia of World Cultures and the Religion & Society series, and senior author of Toward Explaining Human Culture.

J. R. McNeill (Cinco Hermanos Chair in Environmental and International Affairs in the School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University) is author of Something New Under the Sun: An Environmental History of the Twentieth-Century World and coauthor with William H. McNeill of The Human Web: A Bird’s-Eye View of Human History.

Heidi Rupp was a history teacher in Aspen, Colorado, and is founder and executive director of World History Connected: The E Journal for Learning and Teaching and is a former president of the World History Association.

Judith P. Zinsser (Professor of History, Miami University) is co-author with Bonnie S. Anderson of A History of Their Own: Women in Europe from Prehistory to the Present and is a former president of the World History Association.

---

Associate Editors

Ross Dunn, San Diego State University
Ryba Epstein, Rich East High School
Brian Fagan, University of California, Santa Barbara
Daniel Headrick, Roosevelt University
Kailai Huang, Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts
Marnie Hughes-Warrington, Macquarie University, Australia
Tom Laichas, Crossroads School
Erick Langer, Georgetown University
Craig Lockard, University of Wisconsin, Green Bay
Pamela McVay, Ursuline College
Carl Nightingale, University of Massachusetts, Amherst
Patrick O’Brien, London School of Economics
Hugh Page, Jr., University of Notre Dame
Paul Philp, Lancaster Independent School District
Mrinalini Sinha, Pennsylvania State University
Peer Vries, Leiden University, The Netherlands

Over 330 eminent contributors include:

Michael Adas, Rutgers University
A. J. Andrea, University of Vermont
L. Luca Cavalli-Sforza, Stanford University
Mark Cohen, State University of New York, Plattsburgh
Ralph Croizier, University of Victoria, Canada
Alfred Crosby, University of Texas, Austin
Derek Davis, Baylor University
Ross Dunn, San Diego State University
Reuben Firestone, Hebrew Union College
Donna Gabaccia, University of Pittsburgh
Marnie Hughes-Warrington, Macquarie University, Australia
Martin Marty, University of Chicago
John Mears, Southern Methodist University
Kenneth Pomeranz, University of California, Irvine
Andrew Sherratt, Oxford University
Peter Stearns, George Mason University
Ian Tattersall, American Museum of Natural History
Norman Yoffee, University of Michigan
Immanuel Wallerstein, Yale University
Bin Wong, University of California, Los Angeles

500 photographs and other illustrations, including many historical drawings, show students how historical events and global issues have been viewed at different times.
Berkshire Publishing Group is an award-winning, independent reference publishing company based in Great Barrington, Massachusetts. Founded in 1998, Berkshire has developed a reputation for global expertise and creative approaches in popular specialty areas including sports, religion, leadership, interpersonal relationships, area studies, and world history. Berkshire brings together expert global teams to explore the past, present, and future of the whole world.

Berkshire has created some of the leading reference titles of the past ten years—from the ten-volume Encyclopedia of World Cultures (Macmillan) and the six-volume Encyclopedia of Modern Asia (Scribners) to the four-volume Encyclopedia of Leadership (Sage). Berkshire is also proud to announce the Berkshire Encyclopedia of World Sport, the newest sporting bible.